Anyone recognize these kids?

It's a dirty job but somebody has to do it.

How cute.

Russell really knows how to pick up a girl.

Who knows what they're up to.

Mr. Terrell, It ate my paper again.

Band Accomplishments

Again this year the Pride of Maysville turned in another outstanding performance. Under the leadership of Mr. Pratt and the field direction of Charity Morphew and Brenda Dickerson the band won or placed high at several marching contests. At Ada, OK the band took 1st place at the East Central University Homecoming Parade. The band placed 2nd at the Healdton Parade and took 1st place at the Wetumka Band Day. Moving into state competition the band gained superior ratings at the Regional Marching Contest. Later at Lawton they took 2nd place at the State Superior Marching Contest. Also enjoying success this year were twirler Cheryl Tyra and the Flag Corps. They both received superior ratings at the Regional Twirling Competition and then Cheryl gained a superior rating at the State Superior Twirling Competition. Also the band had nine members make the East Central All District Band and eleven members in the South Central All-District Band.

The coronation of the homecoming queen on Friday, October 3rd, capped off a week of various homecoming activities. The major activity was the float building that took place in the bus barn. The winning float was made by the Sophomores with "Rome Over the Indians."

Later that evening at halftime of the football game, the coronation took place. The Freshman candidate was Trena Deviney, who was escorted by Senior Kevin Jones. The Sophomore candidate, Michelle McHugh, was escorted by Senior Chuck Martin. Junior Candidate, Cherye Howard, was escorted by Senior Robby Arnold, and Senior candidate Michelle Morpew was escorted by Senior Jimmy Tyler. The homecoming crowd was ready for the announcement, and Michelle Morpew was crowned homecoming queen by Jimmy Tyler.
